EAGLE RADIO PRESS RELEASE

PRESS RELEASE: Eagle Radio Trust offers to help local charities in Surrey and Hampshire

The Eagle Radio Trust is encouraging local community groups to submit an application ahead of the registered charity's next round of grant reviews due to take place in April 2013.

The Trust is the official charity of Guildford based radio station 96.4 Eagle Radio and since its launch in 2007 it has:

- Awarded more than 100 cash grants
- Approved a majority of grants between £200 - £500
- Awarded grants worth a combined £50,000
- Helped schools, sports clubs and many community groups.

Trust Chairman Paul Marcus explains that they are especially keen to help smaller charities: "The Trustees recognise the important role of local community initiatives and we also know how hard individuals have to work to make them successful."

Applications can be submitted by post. For further information about applying for a grant from The Eagle Radio Trust visit www.964eagle.co.uk/trust/
