

PRESS RELEASE: Eagle Radio starts the search for their Peter Pan and Wendy...

EMBARGOED UNTIL THE 20TH MAY.

This June, Surrey and Hampshire's Eagle Radio and entertainment venue G Live will be bringing another famous story to life.

Young people across Surrey and Hampshire will be invited to take part in an on-air competition to become a cast member of J. M. Barry's 'Peter Pan' for a live recording at Guildford's G Live.

In May, the search will begin for the next Peter Pan and Wendy; with the casting process being aired on Eagle Radio.

Eagle Extra (Eagle Radio's 'Education Station') and G Live will be creating a live recording of the beloved children's story and raising money for the Children's charity Great Ormond Street.

The show will be acted out by a cast of local young people, and will guest star renowned local pantomime actor and Breakfast Show host Peter Gordon as Captain Hook, and Drive Time presenter Wes Venn as Smee.

G Live's Creative Learning Manager Jo Wright will have the tricky task of directing these larger than life characters!

Eagle Radio's Programme Director Peter Gordon is delighted to be involved in an event that promotes both creativity and involvement in the local community,

"It's such a great pleasure to know that we – as a local commercial radio station – not only undertakes unique projects like radio drama but that we can also use that creativity to raise money and awareness for such an important cause.
