

PRESS RELEASE: Eagle flies listeners away for the summer...

Six lucky Eagle Radio listeners are jetting off on holiday after winning on the station's May Getaway.

Throughout May, we gave listeners the chance to win luxurious holidays across the UK and abroad.

All they had to do was listen out for three songs, otherwise known as the 'holiday triple play'.

Several beautiful locations were offered as part of the giveaway, including Valencia, Jersey, Egypt, Saint Lucia, and Budapest.

Claire Champion from Woking was ecstatic to walk away with the final holiday to Antigua, announcing on-air that she had 'never won anything before'.

All the winners were invited to the Eagle Radio studios for a tour, and to collect their coveted 'boarding passes'. (pictured)

Peter Gordon, Programme Director and Breakfast Show Host, said: "Eagle Radio is in the business of changing people's lives – and we hope that by providing the opportunity for people to win holidays in a fun way, that goes a little way towards making that difference.

"We're also delighted that F.G. Barnes continued their strong association with Eagle by sponsoring the month of giveaways."

The May Getaway flights have now departed; but that does not mean there are not more chances to win a holiday with Eagle Radio...

www.964eagle.co.uk

EAGLE RADIO PRESS RELEASE

For further information on how to win a week long holiday to Tobago, visit the Eagle Radio website at www.964eagle.co.uk.

FOR MORE INFO, CONTACT:

Paul Marcus
Paul.marcus@964eagle.co.uk
01483 300 964

Eagle Radio & Eagle Extra has a reach of 153,000 weekly listeners across Surrey and North East Hampshire (RAJAR Q4 2012)

