Fiddler on the Roof centres on one of musical theatre's greatest characters. Tevye, memorably played by Topol in the film version, is a poor tradesman who wonders why God seems to have it in for him despite his strong, orthodox faith. His witty, complex and conflicted character has been loved by generations of theatregoers.

Based in Imperial Russia in 1905, the story of Fiddler has never lost its impact. Using a rich blend of wonderful music, great humour and touching sentiment, the show throws a spotlight on the massive tension between change and tradition in a country being torn up by revolution, and in which Jewish communities are broken up and chased out ...

Fiddler won nine Tony awards and was for a decade the record-holder for the longest ever Broadway run. It has received countless revivals and the film version won three Oscars. This celebrated and much-loved musical is packed with show-stopping songs including the hits "If I Were A Rich Man", "Tradition" and "Matchmaker".
