Opening Hours Consultation

Following the County Council’s 3 month consultation on the future of its library service, your library will continue to be supported to maintain paid “staffed” opening hours. However, in order to achieve the required savings it will be necessary to reduce opening hours at all libraries.

The proposed options recognise the current use made of the library and are the hours when paid NYCC staff will be present. Please indicate your preferred option below.

Please return this form to the library by 31 January 2012. The new opening hours will take effect on 6 June 2012.
